

I think cell phone usage in-flight should be allowed. Even for the simple fact of increased terrorist threats. Think what would have happened on that flight in pennsylvania if no one would have had a cell phone, because they're not allowed. We wouldn't have "Lets Roll." The constitution allows us the freedom of communication, essentially, and I believe that includes in-flight cell phone calls.